

7

OPENED!

COMPLETE LINE OF GOODS

IN THE

COLLINS - HOUSE,

And we are prepared to give you bargains in every line. Give us a call and we are sure to please you. Country Produce taken in exchange for goods at best market prices.

A. Bach & Co.

Hartford Weekly Herald.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12.

BEAVER DAM RAILROAD TIME TABLE

EAST-BOUND.
Local Freight	7:00 a.m.
Passenger	7:15 a.m.
Mail	7:30 a.m.
Passenger	7:45 a.m.
Local Freight	8:00 a.m.
WEST-BOUND.
Local Freight	6:00 p.m.
Passenger	6:15 p.m.
Mail	6:30 p.m.
Passenger	6:45 p.m.
Local Freight	7:00 p.m.

Clear up your premises.

Take THE HERALD and be posted.

Buy Fertilizer at Carson & Co's.

Furnishing Goods at Schuyler's.

We will buy your Hacks and Cabs.

Patience Field's elegant hat line.

Mr. J. H. Sprague is quite sick.

Miss Mary Hanger is on the sick list.

Take your stock to Field's Livery Stable.

The best Oxford Tea for $1.00 is at Carson & Co's.

The wife of Mr. Jake Wilson, Fordville, died last week.

For anything in the territorial line call on E. L. Bullington.

Mr. W. H. Ralph, of Louisville, is the guest of relatives here.

Dr. J. R. Fritze is in Casperville this week, practicing the profession.

A small lot of Wood will buy a lot of Dry Goods at Carson & Co's.

Mr. H. W. Miller is quite sick this week at his home near the water mill.

Mr. J. W. Ford and Mrs. Dent Phigley returned from Louisville Sunday.

When you come to court next week, have your stock cared for by J. H. Patton & Co.

The widow of the late James Patterson died at an epidemic of influenza in Louisville last Friday, the 7th.

The official count gives Hon. W. T. Owen a majority of 1,238 and Hon. J. E. Howe a plurality of 722 in the district.

When in Hartford, stop at the Commercial Hotel. Home comforts, the best of fare and everything first-class. Rates very reasonable. 2941.

Mrs. Amanda Howe, widow of E. O. Howe, died very suddenly at the residence of Mr. Willis Howe, on the 29th ult. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause of her death.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Mr. M. L. Hoxsain and wife returned from Stanley Sunday morning. They had been called by telegram to the bedside of Emmet Cox, Mrs. Hoxsain's brother who died last Friday night.

The Kentucky Medical Association was tentatively entertained during their visit at Owensboro last week. The physicians of our county were in the number of the banquet given at the Hotel Howe last Thursday.

Departed this life about 2 o'clock p. m. May 10th, Helen, an Italian genre belle. I did everything I could to save her because I was in the hole. She died as she lived—without ever saying an evil word. Mrs. D. B. Rice.

Marshall C. R. Morrison visited relatives near Haynesville Sunday and Monday.

During court here your horse feed at Little's Livery Stable. Best feed for horses.

WANTED—Oak and Hickory logs, by Owensboro Wood Company, Owensboro, Ky. 1741

Col. S. B. Dent, representing the United States Life Insurance Company, is in town.

Schuyler will have your clothing made to order on short notice and in elegant style.

Mr. Charles Field left Monday for Nashville, Tenn., in the interest of the Field Coal Co.

Mrs. Virginia Bell and son Robert, Bedford, visited the family of Mr. J. B. Bell Monday.

Mr. Mattie Barrett will return this week from an extended visit to friends in Melrose county.

A trimmed hat—latest styles for children at 50c, and Misses' Teas, and Ladies' hats at 75c, at Carson & Co's.

For a baby new suit or pair of pants, call at Schuyler's and examine his fine line of samples.

Mr. J. R. Williams went to Littleton, Mo., on business Monday.

We want your Wool, Feathers, Eggs and Ginseng for which we will pay the highest market price. CARSON & CO.

You will find Photographer Taylor in his photo art at Hartford every Monday. Cabinets only $1.50 per dozen. 1917

A horse belonging to Mr. A. E. Hornum came up with a buggy in Hartford last evening. No serious damage.

Mrs. S. K. Cox and daughter, Miss Fannie, left Hartford for Charleston, Mo., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. B. Bell Monday.

Remember Field's has meals at all hours. For the most pleasant ride to Beaver Dam, leave your baggage at Field's.

Bring your wool, your wife and daughters. You can buy Hats, Shoes and Dress Goods with wool at Carson & Co's.

Miss Maggie Nell, one of South Carolina's most popular young women, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Felix, near Hartford.

The premises of Hartford should be cleaned up to avoid an epidemic of influenza. The damp season makes this doubly important.

Mrs. J. W. Ford and A. D. White, Addis Place, Ellis Thomas and A. T. Howe, died very suddenly at the residence of Mr. Willis Howe, on the 29th ult. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause of her death.

Mr. F. M. Wyott and family, of Hopkins county, have moved to Hartford, and are occupying Mr. C. P. Western's house in West Hartford.

Dr. Foster has bought four head of deer from Dan Yester, Dan Yester, and has built an 8 acre park for them out of his own three miles from town.

A bunch of pigs was found last Friday on the road between Hartford and Beaver Dam. Over one have same by identification and paying for this.

Mr. Carson Jones, a wealthy citizen of Switzerland, who has been the guest of his sister-in-law, near Center town, is now visiting the Nashville ex-position.

The 3rd quarterly meeting of the Hartford district, Owensboro district, Louisville conference, will convene at Littleton, Tenn. Sunday and Monday, following on Saturday morning and Sunday.

Schuyler is agent for the Globe Telegraph Co., Louisville, and is preparing to send over a large quantity of elastic cloth, in the form of Scott's Emulsion. This is the most valuable remedy in existence for all the wasting diseases of early life. The poorly nourished, scrofulous child; the thin, weak, fretting child; the young child who does not grow; all take Scott's Emulsion without force or bribe. It seems as if they knew that this meant nourishment and growth for bones, muscles and nerves.

Book telling more about it, free.

It won't pay to try a substitute for Scott's Emulsion with the children. They will refuse the real thing.

For sale at 50c and $1.00, by all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

Beaver Dam, and J. D. Maddox, Rockport. We have a pretty straight up the new board will be composed of the following gentlemen: Dr. S. B. Dent, Weddell, Sulphur Springs; Dr. S. D. Taylor, Beaver Dam, and Dr. J. B. Smith, Melferry.

Mr. H. H. Hall and wife, John Hall, of Tish, Barren county, Kentucky, have to-day for Brownfield, Iowa, where they make an extended visit to James Hall and other relatives.

Mr. David Morton, that prince of good fellows, is still at his post and when in Owensboro and you will find him and best of accommodations you will do well to call around at the Plaster's House.

Died, at her residence near Magnolia, last Saturday, of consumption, Mrs. Eliza Ann Miller, wife of Jack Miller. Remains buried at the Taylor Field burying grounds Sunday. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her loss.

THE HERALD next week will contain a two-column sketch for young people by a former editor of Hartford. It is a reminiscence of early days in this vicinity and will prove interesting reading to old as well as young. It is entitled "The Tragic Fate of Little Joe."

Parties in this country contemplating the erection of new buildings or improvements of any kind, or the purchase of machinery containing fire insurances, will be freely furnished with bids for the work by calling on address "Hartford Reporter," Hartford, Conn.

The steamer Janie Lee did not arrive in Hartford yesterday, as Capt. Moore informed last week she would. We are informed that the boat is being sent to the West, and will not return until the latter part of this week without fail.

H. O. Schroeder, the photographer, is now at Calhoun, but will return to Hartford with his Floating Studio before the fair and remain in the city until you want Photos to be permanent, with a neat and stylish finish, you can do better than visit him. His motto is: If I haven't come, he takes it; there is none, he does the best he can. 1413

Through Mr. J. W. Feltz Taylor, Janie Lee has come in possession of quite a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

Mr. Timoleon Morton died at his residence in this city, on the 29th ult. He was a native of Ohio, and was a quantity of shells and fossils, which will place in our curiosity cabinet. Many of the shells look as if they had been used as wampum (Indian money) and a large portion not contained the lot, which was broken by the plow when it brought the shells to the surface. It was made on the Dick Stevens place, four miles east of Hartford.

him. He was kind to everybody, had a pleasant disposition, and was a perfect christian in every respect. Mr. Cox leaves his parents and four sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Dr. C. H. Harris, of this city to mourn his death.

A Necessary, Not a Charity.

An investment in a life insurance policy has come to be looked upon by all good business men as a matter of the earliest and most urgent importance—a duty toward his wife and dependent relatives which every right-thinking man ought to recognize and act upon. No man who is in debt or who has a family dependent upon him for support ought to forget that the time is just ahead of him when he will no longer be able to labor with hand or brain for their maintenance. Death or the infirmity of old age is certain, and while good health remains, no safer or more certain way to lay by a competency for one's own declining years or one's family in case of his death has been devised by man than to secure a policy of insurance in the United States Life Insurance Company, which has done so much to aid and prepare for the needs of widows and orphans in this country.

This company's policies are issued at the same rate and under the same conditions of insurance as the most satisfactory policy devised. Col. S. B. Dent, of Littleton, is the most careful and prompt in the settlement of claims that has ever done business in this country. When a death claim is made, the company's representatives attempt to delay or deny payment, but as soon as proof of a claim is made, the policy is paid.

The most recent example of this is the payment by Col. Dent for the United States Life Insurance Co. of $1,000 to Mrs. Carrie Maddox, widow of H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life Insurance Company in this country. Mr. Maddox has written a letter to Col. Dent, which is being sent to the Hartford Reporter, in which he says that he is very much pleased to be read by every man who takes the time to read this letter. It reads as follows:

BEAVER DAM, KY., May 10, 1897.

Dear Sir: For myself and I should regret to find that I should be obliged to pay for my life insurance policy for the prompt payment you have made to my wife, Mrs. Carrie Maddox, for the death of my husband, H. C. Maddox, deceased, at Beaver Dam. This is but one of the many cases in which the company has come to Col. Dent and the United States Life

